

Cartoonists

William Constable
Bernard Hesling

BERNARD HESLING became friendly with the new residents in the bush suburb of Castlecrag. In his spare time, Hesling drew daily cartoons for the Daily Telegraph. Hesling went to work full time at the Telegraph and his naive outline-style cartoons became well known.

Row Street, Sydney by Hesling

Cartoonists are adept at extracting the absurd

Sci Fi Stage Design by Constable

WILLIAM HENRY ARCHIBALD CONSTABLE was a leading Australian film and stage designer, painter, cartoonist, printmaker and illustrator.