

Sculptors

Bim Hilder
Arthur Murch

Anthony Dattilo Rubbo
By Arthur Murch
NPG

ARTHUR MURCH associated with the Naremburn area was an engineer, painter and sculptor. He won the Archibald Prize in 1949 with his portrait of Bonar Dunlop. Murch's training in engineering and sculpture were particularly evident in his portraits.

St James
by Bim Hilder
Danthonia

There are many more sculptors showcased in the Willoughby Council's ART IN PUBLIC PLACES brochure on display as part of this exhibition. These include:

- Griffin Memorial by BIM HILDER (Castlecrag)
- Tingha Woman by JOE HIRST (Chatswood)
- Sandstone Lizaed by CHRIS BENNETT (Willoughby)
- Daphne by GAYE PORTER (Willoughby)
- Wombat by RIC CONANGHY (Chatswood)
- Sandstone animals by CHRIS BENNETT (Naremburn)
- Stone Turtle by LAWRENCE GUNDUBUCKA (Naremburn)
- Shadow Play by DANIEL TOBIN (Chatswood)