Valda Wilson
Darren Percival
Liam Burrows

VALDA WILSON has established an international reputation for performances. Full of inner conviction and with a voice which soars effortlessly, without strain of any kind, flawlessly accurate yet meltingly smooth, to unexpectedly high notes.

Valma won the prestigious Stella Maris International Singing Competition and was a member of the Young Artist Programs at the Salzburg and Verbier Festivals. She has been a full-time member of the ensemble at the Oldenburg State Theatre.

LIAM BURROWS, a product of Gavin Staine's powerhouse bands at Chatswood High, was a Finalist on 2011's Australia's Got Talent. He has performed over 300 shows and headlined at many of Australia's most popular venues. He has also appeared on many television shows and at major Jazz festivals both in Australian and overseas.

DARREN PERCIVAL learnt his trade with Gavin Staines at Chatswood High. He has a unique solo vocal looping swagger and soulful voice like molten velvet. His live performances are spontaneous vocalization of abundant sonic bliss.
