An 18-year-old HUGH JACKMAN launched his career in a 1989 Willoughby Theatre Company production of Paint Your Wagon as a chorus member.

"I remember pointing to Hugh Jackman, then pointing to the other guys, and saying if you guys were as good as he is, you might get somewhere," President Tom Sweeney remembers.

BRIAN HENDERSON, who lived in Willoughby, hosted the Australian version of Bandstand from 1958 until 1972. Henderson also holds the record for the longest-serving television news presenter, having read either the weekend or the weeknight news on Sydney TV station TCN-9 from January 1957
